

Dust and Ashes

50 Years of Music and Ministry

Tom Page

Tom Page, a founding member of Dust and Ashes, takes a look back at their 50 years of ministry through music—capturing not just a chronological history but, more importantly, a look at the power of song to reveal God’s nature and God’s will for humankind.

Dust and Ashes: 50 Years of Music and Ministry recounts many of the songs and stories that have played a part in their ministry. Along with the stories are notes and letters from those who have heard the songs and have offered their own stories of how their lives or the lives of those they know have been changed.

Finally, the book offers some perspectives on music in the church, gleaned from 50 years of interactions with church leaders and other Christ-followers on whom the songs have made significant spiritual impact.

Included with the book is a 21-song CD of Dust and Ashes songs chosen from among those treated in the book. The CD enhances the stories but also offers the chance for Sunday school classes or other groups to use the book as a study of music and theology. Some groups may find themselves replicating what Dust and Ashes calls the “lyric workshop” (see pp. 88-90). The lyric workshop combines the best of both worlds: music and the word. Read the stories, listen to the music, and discover the life-changing power of a song!
